

PSL CAMPUS SUSTAINABILITY & THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

TRAINING PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Practical Information

Date : 20/10/2023

Duration : 4 hours.
2 pm - 6 pm

Location :

PSL Student Service,
5 rue Mazet 75006 Paris

Limited to 20-25 participants

A good level of English language is required

This course is designed for international students of PSL who are interested in sustainability and campus sustainability initiatives. It's also a good opportunity for students to learn the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs) with fun quiz and workshops.

Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) is a necessity for learners from all disciplines to raise knowledge, skills and values needed to pursue sustainable visions in their life. Through this training program Learners will be able to identify and implement environmental, social justice and economic actions in their academic and non-academic projects.

About the trainer

Surya MURALI – Chief Sustainability officer at PSL and instructor in sustainable development

Interested to know more or any questions ?

Send an e-mail to surya.murali@psl.eu

Learning objectives

1. Understand the basic concepts of sustainable development
2. Discover and understand the UN SDGs and how we can apply these goals in higher education institutions.
3. Familiarize students with eco-gestures on campus and in their daily lives
4. Introduce the various associations linked to sustainable development at PSL and help students to integrate the associations.
5. Make students aware of transdisciplinary learning in sustainable development and the PSL Week.